“ Sincere condolences to Haydn and family from the Ferdinand family. Marie is remembered as a devoted wife, mother and friend to her godmother, Shumkim Edna Ferdinand, whom she visited daily after attending mass in Curepe. Indeed she lived her life like "you playing mas" as she was an avid mas player and devout catholic. May she RIP.

“ Jennifer D'Andrade Ramsingh
One of my fondest memories of Aunty Marie is when she visited our home on my 13th birthday. She helped my mom make a pineapple upside down cake for me. Over the years I think back to that day and how much she cared to take time off to spend it with us to make sure my day was special. And it was! That's the only birthday memory of my childhood that I have, because of her. Rest In Peace Aunty Marie. Condolences to Uncle Haydn, Gavin, Christian, Nicholas and Janine and their extended familyx “ Auntie Marie was like a mom to us all. She was always happy to see us sitting around the kitchen area while we eat her delicious curry cascadura (however it's spelt).

Auntie Marie will always be in our memories.

May her soul rest in peace...

“ Fond memories of Aunty Marie especially around Carnival time as she was an avid mas player and encouraged my sisters and I to play mas and enjoy the festival . She accompanied us to many Carnival tents where we would laugh and appreciate the Art Form. I remember her chuckle and smile even as she spoke frankly about a serious matter. A dear friend to mum (Shirley D'Andrade)...May you both reunite and share some laughs.

Rest in Peace Aunty Marie 🙏

“ Auntie Marie was like my second mom growing up in Valsayn. She opened her home to all the friends of her children, day or night! With a welcoming smile and a kitchen filled with food she really was my second mom:) She and Haydn did a great job of bringing up my brothers and sister who have all been my family for over 50 years. Close to her God her entire life I know she is finally at peace and rejoicing in His warm embrace! I love you Auntie Marie xx
