

Mazel A. Robinson

March 29, 1934 - April 30, 2020

Mazel A. Robinson passed on April 30. The Viewing will be held on Monday May 11, 2020 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. at Eric S. George Funeral Home Chapel 6107 Miramar Parkway, Miramar Florida 33023. The Funeral Service will immediately follow at 10:00 a.m.

Please leave the Family a note of Condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral remembrance piece. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know. John 14:1-4

“ Grandma, I never thought Iâ€™d see the day when you would be away from me but retirement changed that. I Prayed the Day Never Came when I'd have to hear you were no longer here and not living your retirement dreams in that cozy home with that donkey you traded your cadillac for. Words Can never explain.... I Love you so much and Im gonna miss you so much. I wish so much more was said. I wish I knew you were here. I wouldâ€™ve done so much more. My heart broke to hear you were in a home. Grandma Iâ€™m sorry youâ€™re no longer here, and I pray you didnt leave in pain. May God Go with you. Heaven Earned an Angel, God Is now with his child and you are â€œHomeâ€ . You have the Biggest Heart, Sweetest Smile and Most Loving and compassionate arms. You showed me the Most love one child can have. Taught me so much and always taught me to lean on God and Call his name. I am heart broken but time heals all wounds is what youd always tell me. I wish we could turn back the hands of time and I get to experience your love and teachings one more time. God Calls his children back once he gives us time to enjoy them on earth. You are my Forever Lighthouse and Rock in a Safe Place...I Love You...-Kareen ðŸ™
