Be Comforted By These Words:

John 14 King James Version

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

“Mercie was my sister from another mother. Somehow we knew exactly when the other needed to talk about anything big or small. Mercie and I communicated on a different level. We shared a bond of sisterhood since the first time we met more than 21 years ago, from our religious beliefs, our political views, our love of family, to our dedication to teaching. Mercie my sister and my friend, I will never forget you. I will miss the tone of your comforting voice, your funny jokes, your beautiful smile, and your loving soul. I’m sorry that you left so soon but the Lord has called you home to serve a bigger purpose. Rest in power my sweet Mercie and I live my life knowing that you are in heaven looking down on all the people you loved. Thank you for being my rock.”

She will forever be in many hearts, a short time of married life but brightened every person she knew. Be strong and remember all the love she showed so many. Forever in your heart*”

“ Mercie and I traveled to the National Science Teachers Association Conferences for years. Something I know she enjoyed. Mercie was a dedicated teacher who arrived at school early and left the school late working on her lessons. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Mercie was a friend as well as a colleague. During our lunch time, we would often visit the Hoot owls that were in a protected environment on our school’s sports field area. We would discuss many things and had wonderful conversations regarding our mutual interests, upbringings, academics, philosophies, and our daily doings. Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your passing. You were such a dear friend to me at FCMS. We had many laughs about our day-to-day work. You were always so kind and sweet to all of us. We always reminded each other to pray. You will truly be missed, but I know our plans are not HIS plans. May you rest in the eternal arms of God.
