September 6, 1967 – December 14, 2025

Michael Herbert Anderson was born on September 6, 1967, in Miami, Florida, where he was raised and later made his home. A lifelong resident of Miami-Dade County, Michael proudly represented the City of Miami and the community he loved.

Michael dedicated his professional life to media production, where his creativity, technical skill, and commitment to storytelling were evident in all he did. “ The depth of Michael's impact on our community is far beyond what we can see today. We are blessed to have shared in his knowledge, his passion for life, and his caring heart. He was a true storyteller who inspired, intrigued, and enlightened viewers. Michael Anderson made us think and that was his gift. Thank you Michael, I will miss our conversations. My thoughts and prayers are with his friends and family.

“ Before the 8 Emmy awards, 1000 heroes, MiamiMOCAAD, and the countless WLRN productions that have been successful because of Michael; there was Mike- the filmmaker and videographer that I met and worked with through Accord. He and Pam worked there; and very soon thereafter, our families were unified.

3 of my kids wedding videos, Cilk's athletic documentary and sports work, my makeup launch videos and being right there with them, winning at the Emmy's... I am eternally grateful to have been able to learn and grow with Michael and Pam for almost 20 years.

He was THE HERO - The servant leader that always smiled and continually blessed others!

Pam - Know that we are there for you and your family. Love and Prayers, Rory “ Michael was truly a blessing to me and my family. He was my mentor. From day one Michael encouraged me to think outside the box. I sometimes called him Job because he was so patient. Even with all his awards and accolades, he took the time to listen to my ideas and taught me how to develop a story. He encouraged me to think beyond barriers. He would say, when you tell a story you want EVERYONE to feel like they can relate. Think beyond where you are. You want people everywhere to relate to your story. Both he and Pamela were always warm and encouraging. He was a HERO, who created HEROES. He would also say, speak to the human side of these men. You want people to feel like they know and understand them. And Tenille, you want people to respect you and your work. RIP Michael.

“ I was fortunate to get to work with Michael for the last decade or so. He was more than a co-worker, he was a friend. I’m going to miss our daily coffee chats every morning, laughing at the most ridiculous things ever and over all his energy. Mike was one of a kind. All the love and good energy to Pam and the kids.

“ I had the great luxury to get to chat with Michael several times a week this last year. We talked about ideas for projects, his stories about a new person that Pam had talked to on a plane and always bragging about Pam, he definitely loved Pam. He talked about his girls and of course we talked about the Steelers. I will miss Michael as will the production community. RIP Michael, sure you are talking with Franco Harris and Jack Lambert already!
