“ Millicent Brown affectionately called barb's by me and my kids. She was a phenomenal friend and a second mom to my kids. Barbs was the one who made my kids uniform for school. When I ask how much is it she would answer look ya no just give me what you giving me you know I'm not charger you. She did soooo much out of the goodness of her HEART when it came to kids. She always talked about her three kids she loved them sooo much. Barbs had a small business by the school and she would take care of everyone child. It was like a day care even when the parent was late even until six in the evening she would still be there with that child waiting on that parent to come and pick that child up.If you know you know. Only God knows why he took you this soon. I can still see you smiling their a void in my heart nothing can replace you my friend. We love you with all our heart and with all our soul and mind. Walk good my friend walk good. Rest now you've been through so much rest in the arms of your savior
