“ I met Molly Ann in Port St Lucie. We attended the same church. Very quiet and reserved but with a good heart. I visited frequently and sang many hymns with her which we both enjoyed. May she be awakened by the first trumpet on resurrection morning. Condolences to the family.

“ Sis Molly was one of the members in the congregation during my pastoral ministry in the Port St Lucie area. Very gentle and unassuming and loved to sing. May her family be comforted at this sad time as she rest in peace awaiting the voice of the life giver.

“ Sis. Molly such a beautiful soul. She was best friends with my mom Rose and so was a huge part of our family. So many memories but my favorite is just how she was such a sweetheart . I remember going to the house in Port St Lucie and she would always have something to give. The frying fritters for us when we would go to have Friday evening vesper was the best. Sis. Molly was one of the best she truly was a sweetheart.
