

Pastor Cheryl Laverne Culpepper

March 10, 1948 - September 4, 2024

Pastor Cheryl L. Culpepper passed away on September 4, 2024. She was the founder of Love Outreach Ministries and the beloved wife of Rev. Amos Culpepper.

Please leave the family a note of condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral arrangement for the service. Please keep the family in your prayers.

May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

Psalms 116:12-15

12 What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

14 I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

“ “Hi mom, hey baby. How are you doing mom. I am blessed and highly favored son. This how we started every conversation. I surely love you mom, and you cannot be missed, bc you are forever embedded in my heart. Everything I am, and everything I will be is bc of you. I can still hear your voice from messages years ago, and I can hear it now. I will keep your legacy ALIVE, and when they ask I will always say. I get it from my momma! Your son, Pastor Chris and family â ¤,

“ Pastor Cheryl was the one who married Terrence Riley and I . My sons were in the first set to come to the school. Pastor Cheryl you are going to be truly missed. I remember so much about you but your smile will be with me for a lifetime. So fly high angel you earned your wings. You can sing and pray with your sister Tiny. May god continue to bless your family. Love always and forever. Terolyn, Tra€ Vaughn and Ta€ marick.

“ My Aunt Cheryl was a favorite amongst her nieces and nephews. She was always full of joy and her beautiful laughter would ALWAYS bring light to a room. We loved her for her kindness and humor, her sweet soothing voice and her sunny disposition. Your Ohio clan will miss you forever. Love, Jaylynn (niece) Jacquelyn (sister), Joseph (brother-in-law) nephews: Joey, Jeffrey, Jerron and Jerome (deceased).
