“ May she rest in peace. As a team player at Amex for too many years to count, i knew her as a proud woman, full of grace. During her low times she always put her family first before considering herself. It was a pleasure interacting with her. Here is hoping that her family members emulate her God given qualities.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Words are never enough to take away the pain; but our loving Heavenly Father gives us hope through the bible scriptures. Acts 24:15 assures that soon our loved ones will be brought back to life again by means of the resurrection. Jesus will soon call our loved ones out of the memorial tombs- John 5:28, 29. Yes the time will come when we will get to enjoy wonderful times again with our loved ones on earth and all suffering and death will be removed forever- Psalms 37:29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Meanwhile until that time comes please know that "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." May these promises bring hope and comfort to the family.
