“ Words cannot begin to express how I feel about this man. He is one of the few men that have been in my life to show me how to become a man and a gentleman. As a child growing up, I was his shadow always following him around because I was just that close to him. With this pandemic going on I was glad I was able to chat and see his smiling face again a few weeks ago. I was joking with him about him needing a haircut and he said he wasn't getting one until December LOL. My uncle still had his sense of humor intact. I'm going to miss his laughter and Little Gems the wisdom from him. Auntie! I know you told me to look after him when he came home to visit, but he said boy you know I'm going to be me and still did what he wanted to do. Uncle Raymond, you are going to be missed by all of your nieces and nephews but the things you have taught us in life we still remember them. And most of all, we still remember you and love you. We miss you, rest in peace. With love your favorite nephew Montinez Henderson.

“ Words can't express how much I am going to miss you, Uncle Raymond! At this point, All I can hold on to is my "Memories"; Going all around Miami, Fl. to service all your Printer Customers and teaching me my first exposure to "Street Spanish"; In my eyes, You were the best at all you did! From servicing your "long time customers" to just the average person on the street. I was so proud! I Love You, Uncle Raymond! My Condolences to my Beautiful Auntie "Ann", his wife, his Siblings (Including My Dad, James "Fay" Morrison) and a Host of Cousins.Â My Continual Prayers for the Entire Family!Â We are truly going to Miss You, Uncle Raymond! â

“ Your buddy (KC) awaits you, Cousin Raymond! I’ll always cherish the memories-although it was tiresome at the time-of cooking EVERY day that you came home to Valdosta. You and my grandad were inseparable!!! Cousin Darthula was on reserve to calm his temper, but were undoubtedly his BEST friend. I knew y’all were “Morrisons,” but didn’t know the relation as a child. I can remember the day you made it CLEAR to me, “Now, “K” is our cousin, but he has always been and will forever be a brother to Cube and Quincy’s crew-you’ll understand down the line.” I gained my understanding as I got older. Thank you for ALL that you taught me. I love you! Rhonda Morrison Wright
