Reginald A Hudson passed away on December 31, 2024. He was a native of Hollywood, Florida and lived in West Park, Florida.

Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers during this time of bereavement. Additionally, you can support the family by leaving a note of condolence, sharing a memory, or lighting a candle of remembrance. You can also order flowers for the service.

May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

“ I will remember all the battles we shared on the field as half pints playing on the same team and on opposite sides in high school. You were a beast on the football field and will be missed. My condolences to the Hudson family. God Bless. Love y'all

“ Reggie was one of the first people I met when I moved to Fort Lauderdale a little over 5 years ago. He was one of the kindest people I've ever known and over the years, he became a very close friend who will forever stay in my heart. I miss you Reg so, so much and wish that we had more time together. Edward ❤️❤️❤️

“ This years Christmas dinner and when you were leaving I said be careful and you shook your butt at me was the last time I saw you. Reggie you know I love you and you will always be in my heart big time. But one thing for sure I will always be funnier than you. See you soon my friend. Rich
