A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory

Our grateful hearts will treasure.

“ Mr Sukie was a valued member of the Fabric Consultants Ltd. Team. He was an honest and reliable employee with a bright smile always ready to help. He was a big man with a big heart ❤️❤️❤️

We are forever grateful for his support and contribution to the company and wished him well on his journey to the U.S.

His duties included picking up my daughters Rachel and Julianna from school. Rachel remembers with fondness the sweets he gave her on their way home and was in tears on hearing of his passing. Our family is deeply saddened by his passing.

We offer our sincere condolences to his family and pray that his soul will rests in Peace and light perpetual shines upon him.

“ Memories of Sukie from the FCL Family

We are heartbroken! We have lost a member of our family!

It was one day sometime between the late 1990's and the early 2000's that he entered our lives, walking through the doors at Fabric Consultants Ltd in Kingston Jamaica, with the bright smile and bubbly personality equal to his stature.

His job title was "Driver", but that turned out to be the least of his functions, as he became our 'man of all seasons'. He was beyond reliable. The word "NO" was not in his vocabulary, as his standard response to a request for help was "Yeah Man", even when he had no idea how to proceed, but he was going to use all his efforts to make it happen, all in line with his kind, loving, and generous character.

He was always ready to listen and give advice – the straight talker he was! He was the father to us all, regardless of age, even referring to one of us as "my youth" even up to recently.

Sukie represented our organization well, as we received several very positive reviews from clients about his excellent customer service.

Our memories of Sukie are numerous and very pleasant. We remember the days he was the chef, as we 'ran a boat' for lunch. We remember the out-of-town trips for our family picnics or sadly for funerals. He added sparks to our Christmas celebrations. We will never forget those moments!!

We cannot, however, talk about Sukie without mentioning what may have been his biggest flaw. He was what we will call strong-willed, though some may say he was stubborn, apparently remaining that way to his final days. For the time he was with us at the office, we tried, but failed, to deny some revenue to the makers of Pepsi. He, on the other hand, made sure their business prospered. Every bottle of Pepsi was the last one, until the next one later that day, or tomorrow.

He left a void when he migrated, as there was no real replacement or substitute for this giant of a man. Nobody else was able to measure up. Although most of us have gone our separate ways, some of us maintained contact with him, even as recently as his last birthday in January. So we were devastated by the news of his passing.

We – including Nick, Diana, Patsy, Sidoney, Dionne, Sandra, Jackie, Jean - extend sincere condolences to his immediate family, and pray that you will receive the comfort of the Lord at this time.
