ATTENTION: Due to the COVID- 19 virus pandemic and in the effort to help stop the spread of the Virus. Face masks must be worn at all times while in the Funeral Home. We can only allow a certain number of individuals inside the funeral home at one time. Please, remember to keep your distance as much as possible, and wash and sanitize your hands. Thank you for your cooperation and with helping us to do our part in stopping the spread of the Virus.

Please leave the Family a note of Condolence, light a candle of remembrance, or order a floral remembrance piece. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know. John

“ To Neka, Kema and all the family. My heart is heavy but I know it could never be as heavy as yours is right now. Your mom and I met at work and quickly connected. Her energy was always positive and there was always a great big smile on her face. We became even closer as we both were expecting our first grands at the same time. They were born just a couple of months apart. I had a boy and she had a girl and we would always laugh and say to each other "how's my grandson in law / granddaughter in law" it was always happy conversations no matter what the topic. Roda was well reserved, kind to everyone and oh so proud of her girls. I thank God for allowing us to cross paths. I want to say to you all to be encouraged and trust in God because he will carry you through. I love you all. God bless you and may my friend sleep in peace.Lee

“ It has been a pleasure being apart of this family as I have gained more cousins and a cousin who is like a sister. I always considered you as my cousin auntie. I adored you as I followed in your footsteps. It wasn't until we married into the family my mom use to drop me off to your house for you to do my hair. It was then that I knew this is what I wanna be when I finished hair school. After that you became a bus driver and there I go again following in your footsteps and became a bus driver and we work together at South area. I was so comfortable there knowing I had family there. Thank you. Last I saw you was a couple of months ago as the tables changed and you were sitting in my chair getting your hair done. I guess what I'm trying to say is thanks for being a role model. Sleep on my precious party girl. Until we see each other in heaven.”
