Rose M. Williams

July 15, 1955 – April 11, 2026

With love and remembrance, we honor the life of Ms. Rose M. Williams, whose journey was marked by compassion, strength, and a deep commitment to caring for others.

Rose was born in Jamaica on July 15, 1955, and later made her home in Valrico, Hillsborough County, Florida, where she built a life rooted in service and dedication. As a registered nurse, she devoted herself to the healing and well-being of others, offering comfort not only through her professional skill but also through her kindness and gentle spirit.

Nursing was more than a career for Rose—it was an extension of her heart. She carried herself with grace and quiet strength, touching countless lives through her care, patience, and compassion. Whether with family, friends, colleagues, or patients, Rose was known for the warmth she brought into every room and the calm reassurance she gave so freely.

She will be remembered as a woman of dignity, resilience, and unwavering compassion—someone whose life made a meaningful difference in the lives of many.

Her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of those who loved her and in the many lives she touched along the way.

Family and friends are invited to share a message of comfort or light a candle in her memory as we honor and celebrate her life.

“She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.”
