“ So sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. She was my first "out-of-town" friend . We met when we were very young through our parents' work in the Church of God of Prophecy. We were pen pals and always looked forward to seeing each other at district and state conventions. Sharon was also a blessing to the local District CoGoP when she was a student at FSU in Tallahassee. Although we drifted apart over the years we were always glad to see each other when our paths crossed. I will miss her but I rejoice that she is with our Savior and free from pain and suffering.

“ *Sister Berry was not just a mentor to us, but a true friend. She saw the potential in each of us and worked tirelessly to help us develop our musical talents. Her patience, encouragement, and support gave us the confidence to pursue our dreams. Sister Berry's legacy of music, kindness, compassion, and dedication will forever be remembered by all those whose lives she touched. We are grateful for the time we had with her and Deerfield Ministries and will continue to honor her memory by sharing the gifts she helped us discover with others. “ I had the privilege of being Sharon’s college roommate at FSU for two years. Her love for our Lord and her dedication to serving Him made a big impact on my life. We reconnected about five years ago and spent precious times on the phone since then. It’s my prayer that her children and Mark will find great peace and strength in knowing that Sharon’s legacy lives on in all of the lives she touched! She was an amazing woman who knew what it was like to fight the good fight. I love her deeply and I miss her terribly. Our loss is Heaven’s gain! Terri Long

“ My name is Alvin Poole. I grew up around the corner from Sharon...we used to play together as kids. Always quiet but still fun. Roller skates were a favorite Christmas gift. Union 5 were popular of course they were inconvenient then Sharon was first to get superskates they were so much better than union fives so next Christmas we all got superskates too. Here comes Sharon skating around the corner in Roller Derbys. Always a step ahead..Rest well Sharon
