“ With sympathy for your family...Sharon McCrea A.K.A. Shay Shay was a co-worker of mine, that quickly turned into a wonderful friendship. She was a very unique person, always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone. I pray that with the passing of time and the love from friends and family, it will bring them strength and comfort now and in the days to come. I thank God for blessing me with having Sharon as my friend, I will cherish the beautiful memories. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord! With heartfelt condolences, God bless!

“ Farewell my dear friend, Sharon Yvonne McCrea. The memories we made together will ALWAYS hold a special place in my heart. Your friendship, kindness, generosity and sense of humor brought an abundance of joy and laughter into my life. It was laughter and fun every day in my clerical training classroom when you were a student pursuing a career in the business arena at B. F. James Adult Center. I was extremely proud of you when you continued your education to provide a comfortable lifestyle for you and your son, Eric. I will miss our conversations, adventures and the many good times we shared. You were an invaluable student, friend and confidant. Though the loss is deep, the power of love and friendship will ALWAYS stay alive. God bless you my friend!

“ Because I know that Sharon was a believer, I just want to remind you that "goodbye" is really "see you later." I can't imagine how difficult things are for you right now, but as you keep this truth close to your heart you will find peace within yourself. I know my friend who I knew over about 18 years was beautiful and amazing person. God got her.
