

Sterling Terrance Belfon

October 19, 1941 - May 18, 2026

Sterling Terrence Belfon was born on October 19, 1941, in Grenada, West Indies. On May 18, 2026, he peacefully departed this earthly life, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, dedication, and quiet strength.

Sterling was known as a dependable and hardworking man who took pride in his work as a Maintenance Supervisor. Throughout the years, he earned the respect of those around him through his commitment, leadership, and willingness to help others. He carried himself with humility and dignity, always striving to provide for his family and loved ones.

Born and raised in Grenada, Sterling carried the warmth and resilience of his Caribbean roots wherever he went. He valued family, community, and the importance of perseverance through life's challenges. His presence, wisdom, and steady spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Though he is no longer with us in body, the memories he created and the lives he touched will forever remain in the hearts of his family and friends.

“Well done, thou good and faithful servant.” — Matthew 25:23

Please continue to keep the Belfon family lifted in prayer during this time of bereavement.
