May these words sustain those who are burdened with sorrow:

There's a very special garden
Where the trees of memory grow
Nurtured by the kindness
And concern that good friends show.
The roots are cherished memories Of good times in the past.
The branches tender promises that souls endure and last.
It's a place of peace and beauty
Where bright new hopes can start
It's memory's lovely garden that soothes the hurting heart.

“ O My, Kisha I am so sorry to just see you're no longer with us. All I can do is think of our memories growing in church & the good times. I saw you on your journeys on Facebook & you were a fighter/warrior like no other. I loved your kids compassion & dedication. I pray the beautiful memories will comfort your babies in their hours of bereavement. Prayers & Blessings to the family & friends.

“ My Mother, you were a fighter, a warrior, smart and goofy. You did many things alone and raised your bunch well. You did many things for us, your community, and those around you. You inspired me beyond my years. Your legacy will be carried out through all the lives you've touched... rest well my butterfly, you are LOVED.
