“ Dear Kelly Family: I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, Travis. May you find comfort in the words written at Acts 24:15, where God promises to bring back to life those we have lost in death by means of a resurrection. In the future He will also do away with our enemy, death. (Revelation 21:4) This gives us the wonderful hope of being reunited with our loved ones, forever. Until then, I hope the memories of Travis and these promises from God comfort you in the days ahead.

I'll never forget that you were first and last person I taught to drive. I'll remember every crazy song you made for me and the pictures for my classroom. You were so funny you knew how to brighten up someone's day with that giant smile of yours. I'll never forget how you surprised me when you got your dreads back and all the crazy stories you had. I just wish we could of kept making more .Now I just look at your lg and reminisce on all of our adventures from the past. Most importantly I never will forget how you just called me Sis. You never let me down and was always there for me. I'm so sad you won't be able to meet my soon to be new born but, I know you'll be smiling down on her from up of. Bless you...Love you, trav trav. ~Gone but never forgotten.~*
