“ NW 6th Street, Hallandale was our collective home base growing up where we become ã tight knit family always being there for each other. Your smile still shines bright as I remember the good times we shared. Spread your wings and fly high! In loving memory always.

“ I remember when we worked together at ACS, HP you were an inspiration to us. Your smile and kind words, in that soft voice. I would always tell you I m your daughter. When you told me that you had moved to Florida my heart was was little broken but I understood the reason why. When we speak over the phone we would be on phone for hours and laughing about so many things. God has called a beautiful angel home. Prayers to the family.
