“ I met Ms Hicks in the 80's at Cedars Hospital as I was candy striper there in my peppermint uniform. It was such a joyful time being around. She was so beautiful at work(inside/outside), had on her uniform looking glamorous every day. I tried to take my lunch break the same time I knew she'd be in that cafeteria. Pure laughter in there or anywhere you'd run into her. When she joined Friendship I was so happy to see her & embrace again. Well, take your rest Queen & it was a pleasure being around you.& I will always treasure the memories.

“ Miss Vera Hicks will truly be next. I'm not her grandson, but she adopted me as her grandson because I was her driver to the Florida General Baptist convention for several years that she attended with us while at the convention. I assisted Miss Hicks to and from where she needed to go at that point, she adopted me as her grandson I really love Miss Hicks like she was my own. She will truly be missed. Her unique style in class is one of a generation that is lost and we need to remember everything that they have told us family. We have lots of treasure, but she is always in our hearts
