I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

“ Wendy and I were cousins; my mother and her father were first cousins. When she was in Boston, we visited often but when she moved to Florida, we lost touch. So sorry that we didn't stay in touch. Sonia, please accept my condolences and may God bless you and your daughter. Love Marsha.

“ I will truly miss my cousin Wendy. I was first introduced to Wendy when I moved to the Boston area in the early '70s. Her mom and my mom had be close as they grew up in AR. Wendy and I clicked immediately. In addition to being related, she became one of my best friends. I missed her when she relocated to Florida but we remained in sporatic contact. Rest in peace my sweet cousin/friend. Loving thoughts and prayers to Sonia and Janet.

“ Wendy and I grew up together in Boston, Massachusetts. I lost touch with her when she moved to Florida but God had a way of reuniting our friendship. COVOID -19 prevented me from visiting her but we maintained regular phone conversations. It is so hard to say good-bye to yesterday. I will miss you. Maryanne Lanier Dixon-Jones
