

Willie James Wilson Jr.

August 9, 1945 - February 25, 2025

With sorrowful hearts, we announce the passing of Mr. Willie James Wilson, Jr., a devoted servant, a retired United States Postal Service worker, and a proud veteran of the U.S. Army. His life was one of dedication, service, and love—leaving behind a legacy that will be forever treasured.

At this time, arrangements are incomplete. Please check back for updates on service details.

We invite you to support the family by leaving a note of condolence, sharing a memory, or lighting a candle in his honor.

May These Words Bring Comfort

Though tears may fall and hearts may ache,
His love remains—no time can take.
The laughter shared, the lessons told,
A legacy of light and gold.

No more burdens, no more pain,
He walks where sunshine knows no rain.
Beyond the sky, beyond our sight,
He rests in everlasting light.

Though we grieve, we hold on tight,
To memories warm, to love's pure light.
For in our hearts, he still remains,
A guiding star that never wanes.

“ Farewell, Uncle Willie,

It's hard to say goodbye to someone who meant so much. You were more than just an uncle—you were a guide, a source of wisdom, and a constant presence of kindness in our lives. Your laughter, your stories, and your unwavering love will always stay with us.

Though you may be gone from this world, your spirit will live on in the hearts of those you touched. We will cherish the memories, the lessons, and the love you shared. Rest in peace, Uncle Willie. You will never be forgotten.

“ I’m missing you dad, and I’m happy to have been there with you in your final moments witnessing your peace among us all, more importantly with GOD. Your last words; smile, and last stare as I stood beside your bed holding your hand was momentous. One thing for sure and two things for certain is that YOU did GREAT here on earth and I couldn’t be more proud and asked for a better father than you. The countless memories of talks and walks will never be forgotten nor erased for the duration of my time here on earth. We will one day reunite, but until then I shall remain “Solid!”

With Infinite LOVE,
Shalon, Sharrod, and Jade
